2. Commodity & Currency Research Desk

- Rupee traded extreme weak this week from 79.25 to 80.00 levels falling about -1% on back of dollar index strength which has scaled to 109$ odd levels. The higher inflation data in US at 9.1% compared to 8.8% earlier caused the strength in dollar & safe heaven buying was seen in dollar and sell off in other currencies related to dollar index. The broad trend in rupee remains weak till the time it is below 79.25.
- Gold prices fell again this week as prices test levels of 50000 after couple of months basing range between 50500 - 52000. The prices are in bullions are weak as the dollar index trades above 108.50$ showing extreme bullish case, and hence all commodities are impacted bearish in tone as recessionary outlook runs forefront. Gold can touch the zones of 49500-49000 on coming week where as 50750 will act as a strong barrier going ahead.
