Important Market & Industry Information

2. Commodity & Currency Research Desk

- Rupee traded weak in the week as the dollar index rebounded from $101.50 lows to $103.50 zones sending the rupee lower by Rs 0.60 at 82.55 with a low below Rs 82.75 on Tuesday. Crude pushed the rupee to rise as prices crossed $75 in WTI & $80 in Brent as Russia plans to voluntarily reduce oil production by 500,000 barrels per day, or around 5% of output in March keeping the pressure on the rupee every time the rupee tried to bounce up above Rs 82.50.
- Gold price trade muted in MCX near 56725. Prices touched high of 57400 in week but gave up gains as Comex Gold took resistance near 1885$ and shred lower at 1860$ on back of higher dollar denomination from 101.50$ to 103.50$. Gold prices now react to dollar rebound and going dollar rally shall direct the yellow metal prices as dollar crossing above 105$ shall create panic into the markets of Commodity & Currencies.
