Markets likely to make pessimistic start ahead of macro-economic data

Indian equity benchmarks ended with marginal gains as investors turned cautious ahead of some crucial economic data. Today, the markets are likely to make pessimistic start as investors await crucial economic data on consumer inflation and industrial output for direction. India's retail inflation likely to jump further in May to a four-month high, primarily driven by a surge in energy prices. Traders may remain concern after President Donald Trump has taken a swipe at India along with the world's other top economies and accused New Delhi of charging 100 percent tariff on some of the US' goods, as he threatened to cut trade ties with countries who are robbing America. Traders may also remain anxious on report that 1,300 fresh foreign portfolio investors (FPIs) were registered with Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) in 2017-18 as compared to 3,500 new FPIs were registered in the preceding financial year. However, traders may get some solace later in the day with report that the Reserve Bank came out with draft guidelines on loan system for delivery of bank credit to improve discipline among larger borrowers enjoying working capital facility from the banking system. Meanwhile, the recent amendments in the bankruptcy resolution framework will help reduce timelines, enhance transparency and improve realisations. There will be buzz in steel and power companies with Union minister Piyush Goyal's statement that the government was looking at opening auctions of coal mines to the steel and power sectors, and that a robust framework was being worked out for commercial mining.

Domestic Market Overview

Late hour selloff caps gains on Dalal Street

Monday turned out to be a disappointing day of trade for Indian equity benchmarks, as frontline gauges failed to hold initial jubilation and ended with marginal gains as traders booked most of their early gains ahead of the outcome of a historic meeting between the US President Donald Trump and the North Korean leader Kim Jong Un. Markets gained strength after making flat-to-positive start, as traders took some encouragement with CII's statement that Industry is expecting the GDP to grow by close to 8% over the next couple of years, as strong reforms process and fiscal prudence have laid a solid foundation for growth. Markets extended northward journey in noon deals as some support came with report that foreign direct investment (FDI) in India increased to $61.96 billion in 2017-18. FDI inflows stood at $60 billion in the previous fiscal. During the four years of the BJP government, foreign inflows jumped to $222.75 billion from $152 billion in the previous four-year period. Adding to the optimism, Commerce Minister Suresh Prabhu said that India's GDP growth is likely to cross 8% in the next two years and the government is taking a number of steps including formulation of a new industrial policy to double the economy's size to $5 trillion in 7-8 years.

Further, investors also took some support with a report highlighting that Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) cleared over Rs 7000 crore worth Goods and Services Tax (GST) refunds of exporters during the initial phase of the special refund drive undertaken by the authorities. However, market participants pared most of their initial gains as sentiments turned pessimistic, as anxiety spread on the street with Former finance minister P Chidambaram's statement that state of the economy was bad in the country due to the wrong policies of the NDA government and tyres of three (Exports, Private Investment, Private Consumption) of the four wheels on which the economy rides were punctured. Sentiments also weighed down on report that annual consumer price inflation (CPI) likely to increase at 4.83% in May, the highest since January and above April's 4.58%.

Agri input companies remained buzzing owing to forecasts that the monsoon this year will be normal. Stocks related to in public sector undertaking (PSU) banks edged higher with Finance Minister Piyush Goyal's statement that a committee will come out with its recommendations on setting up an asset reconstruction or an asset management company for faster resolution of bad loans.

Global Market Overview

Asian markets end mostly higher on Monday

Asian equity markets ended mostly higher on Monday, with investors shrugging off concerns about trade war and looking ahead to the outcome of a historic meeting between the US President Donald Trump and the North Korean leader Kim Jong Un. However, gains are just modest in most of the markets in the region amid largely thin volumes ahead of crucial monetary policy meetings of the Bank of Japan, European Central Bank, and the US Federal Reserve. Japanese shares ended modestly higher, although volume of business was rather thin. Meanwhile, Chinese shares closed lower, on investor concerns over the liquidity conditions in the market. The markets in Indonesia remain closed for Eid-UI-Fitr holiday.

US markets end higher on Monday

The US markets ended higher for second straight session on Monday, as investors shrugged off concerns over a tumultuous G-7 meeting over the weekend at which President Donald Trump lashed out at US allies. President Trump and his administration escalated criticism of Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and international trade over the weekend at the annual G-7 summit that took place in Quebec, Canada. The conclusion of the two-day summit, where Trump met with leaders from Europe and Canada, resulted in the US incumbent refusing to endorse the joint G-7 statement that called for a reduction of tariffs - sparking tensions between him and fellow G-7 leaders. Wall Street also prepared for the hotly anticipated meeting between Trump and North Korea leader Kim Jong Un in Singapore, set to occur on Tuesday.

➤ FDI inflows in India grew to $61.96 billion during 2017-18: DIPP Secretary

Few days after the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) showing drop in India's foreign direct investment (FDI) inflows during 2017, Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion (DIPP) Secretary Ramesh Abhishek has said that FDI in the country witnessed a growth during 2017-18 to reach at $61.96 billion.

As per DIPP, FDI increased by about 3 per cent during 2017-18 compared to the $60 billion inflows reported in the previous fiscal. DIPP Secretary also highlighted the pace of expansion of foreign inflows during the four years of the Modi government, saying that FDIs jumped to $222.75 billion from $152 billion in the previous four-year period.

However, according to the UNCTAD report, India's foreign direct investment (FDI) inflows dropped to $40 billion in 2017 as compared to $44 billion in 2016. It also indicated that in South Asia, FDI inflows contracted by 4 percent to $52 billion, due to a fall in inflows to India.

➤ ASSOCHAM suggests reduction in oil duties as best solution to check spurt in fuel prices

Amid rising fuel prices, the industry chamber Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM) has said that in order to check the spurt in fuel prices, reducing taxes is the best solution and this will also enormously help India on the exports front. It added that bring down current account deficit, will make the country's exports competitive and the nation may also no longer see the rupee depreciating.

Suggesting further measures to the Centre, the industry chamber has said that there is need to bring in oil products under the ambit of the Goods and Services Tax (GST), so that the country's fuel prices match international rates. It also said that the prices then do not have to be administered by the government and people would treat oil as just another commodity which depends on international prices. It added that higher oil prices significantly impact not just India's economy but household budgets as well as it leads to increase in cost of transportation and therefore impacts a lot of other products in the inflation basket.

Noting that higher crude prices adversely affect twin deficits – fiscal and current account deficits of the economy, which will have major impact on monetary policy, consumption and investment behaviour in the economy, ASSOCHAM said that reduction in oil duties will be of big advantage to the country's exports. Besides, the Centre had earned a whopping Rs 2.4 lakh crore while the states earned Rs 1.6 lakh crore as excise duty from the petroleum sector in FY17 and the figure is set to increase further this fiscal.

➤ Industry expects GDP to grow by close to 8% over next couple of years: CII

With a solid foundation of strong reforms process and fiscal prudence, the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) in its latest report has said that industry is expecting the gross domestic product (GDP) to grow by close to 8% over the next two years. It also said that the economy is in a sweet spot right now as the adjustment process regarding major reforms of the past few years is largely stabilised and industry is ready for a fresh phase of investment while capacity utilization builds up. It added that Rs 50,000 crore worth of investments have been recently announced.

According to a chief executive officers (CEOs) opinion poll, about 82% of them expect GDP growth to be higher than 7% for the year 2018-19, with 10% of them expecting growth to be above 7.5%. The survey said that industry is looking forward to GDP growth rate picking up to close to 8% over the next couple of years. It highlighted that fiscal prudence, able macroeconomic management, and strong reforms process have laid a sound foundation for growth.

The CII's poll report stated that in the manufacturing sector, although input costs are rising the overall opinion was that demand is healthy. The report showed that CEOs noted good performance across sectors such as automotives, white goods, steel, cement, and capital goods. In the ICT sector, CEOs stated that the outlook is 'good' and that manufacturing of smartphone components is set to go up, indicating upward local value-addition.
